The next Board of Directors meeting will be held at the University Bar & Grill on Thursday, August 26th at 5:30pm. Everyone is invited to attend.

Jane Cox - Everyone was asked to bring their backpacks for Laburnum Elementary School to the August 25th meeting for collection. Please bring them next week if you will not be attending the August 25th meeting.

Tim Reading - Notices for the Rotary annual dues have been sent out and need to be paid as soon as possible.

Program Next Week: Carl Miller President of Impact Makers will provide next week's program. For more information please see the web site under the Meeting Programs Tab.

Today's Program: Jamie Seagraves, Public Relations Coordinator for Homeward provided this morning's program. Homeward is an organization that is a catalyst for resources and services to prevent and end homelessness. Jamie encouraged members to donate needed items for distribution to homeless individuals in the Richmond Community to Homeward. He also made us aware of the Project Homeless Connect event slated for November 18, 2010 at the Richmond Convention Center. Please see the attachments and visit their web site at www.homewardva.org for additional information.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned with the Four Way Test.

Respectfully submitted,

Mike Cushnie
Club Secretary
